Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e). As part of its response to the impacts of COVID-19, Forterra, Inc. (the “Company”) announced that, effective April 1, 2020, its Chief Executive Officer has voluntarily agreed to forgo 50% of his base salary and each of its other named executive officers have voluntarily agreed to forgo 15% of their respective base salaries. This arrangement will be effective until such time as the Company determines in its discretion that business conditions related to, among other things, the novel coronavirus have improved.

In addition, the independent members of the Company’s Board of Directors (“Board”) have also agreed to voluntarily forgo payment of 50% of their cash retainer compensation, including for service on the Board and its committees, effective April 1, 2020 until such time as the Board of Directors determines whether to recommence, revise or continue to forego its compensation.

Forward-Looking Statements

This current report on Form 8-K contains statements that are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “Act”), including statements containing the words “plans,” “will,” “anticipates,” “expects,” and “intends,” or similar expressions, as well as other words or expressions referencing future events, conditions or circumstances. The Company intends these forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Act. Statements that describe or relate to the Company’s plans, goals, intentions, strategies, or financial outlook, and statements that do not relate to historical or current fact, are examples of forward-looking statements. Examples of forward-looking statements in this report include, without limitation, statements regarding actions relating to the COVID-19 global pandemic. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company’s current expectations and involve substantial risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, and therefore, the Company cannot assure any investor that the Company’s plans, intentions, expectations or strategies will be attained or achieved. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, the impact of the COVID-19 global pandemic on the Company’s workforce, operations and results; the sufficiency and effectiveness of the Company’s or its suppliers’ business continuity plans, the ability of its customers to continue operations; and the other factors and financial, operational and legal risks or uncertainties described in the Company’s filings with the SEC, including the Company’s most recent annual report on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made. The Company does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
